Manage the cost of your home heating throughout the year with our flexible
Heatplan Direct Debit Scheme

Thinking about filling your oil tank but worried about having to pay for it all in one go?

We would like to make the purchase of your home heating oil easier by spreading the cost throughout the year.

What are the benefits of switching to regular monthly repayments with a Heatplan Account*?

Spread Your Annual Costs

As a Heatplan customer you can fill your tank when you need to and spread the cost over the year.

Easy, Monthly Direct Debit

You choose which day of the month you want to make payment and we will automatically take payment out of your bank account.

Peace of mind

To ensure your costs are spread evenly over the year, we regularly look at your monthly payments to ensure your account runs smoothly.

Interest-free

It does not cost anything to be on our Heatplan Scheme, there is no monthly subscription and it is interest free.

Top-Up

Never worry about running out of fuel again by joining our top-up scheme.

Heatplan Account General Conditions:

1. First delivery can only be completed when the initial agreed payment and completed direct debit form have both been received.
2. All 'Heatplan' accounts are reviewed on June 30 each year and monthly payments may be adjusted at that time or at other times during the year in the light of actual consumption.
3. Where a plan has been held for less than 12 months on the June 30 review date, we reserve the right to ask for a lump sum payment or to increase the monthly payments if total purchases have exceeded total payments.
4. The initial monthly payment must reflect 1/10 of the cost of anticipated services and fuel required during the forthcoming 12 months.
5. NWF Fuels Limited may use the services of a credit reference agency to seek and provide the required financial references within the guidelines of the Data Protection Act 1998.
